

Eboni Keys, M.Ed., QMHP Counselor/Support Specialist

Eboni is a Virginia native. She attended Old Dominion University as a Sociology and Criminal Justice double major. There she obtained a Bachelor of Science before attending Virginia State University and receiving her Master of Education in Counselor Education. Over the past ten years, she had the opportunity to provide services throughout the state of Virginia in various capacities to adults and children to assist in improving self-sufficiency. Eboni enjoys utilizing eclectic and collaborative counseling approaches to support individuals throughout their life journey. In her leisure time she enjoys traveling, spending time with family, and exposure to new experiences.