

Mahala Sacra, MPS, QMHP-C Counselor

I completed my Master of Professional Studies degree in art therapy at the School of Visual Arts in New York City in 2017. In my training I specialized in addiction treatment and worked with children with behavioral issues and adults with substance abuse disorders. While art therapy is my primary modality, I often use this in conjunction with solutions-focused and strengths-based approaches.