

Brittany Reuschling, MSW, Supervisee in Social Work

Brittany was born in Richmond, raised in Chesterfield, and currently lives in Dinwiddie, VA. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice and Sociology from Longwood University and a Master of Social Work degree from Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU). Brittany's journey as a social worker includes becoming a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW). She is passionate about working with children and families and is dedicated to providing them with the complete care and support they need to live safe, happy, healthy, and productive lives. Brittany has experience working with children and adolescents in group settings and individual outpatient therapy. She believes that a strong client-clinician relationship is very important for successful treatment outcomes, and practices using trauma-informed, person-centered, and strengths-based approaches. Outside of work, Brittany loves spending time with her family and friends, traveling, and watching funny movies and TV shows.
