

Jaquelyn “Jackie” Griffin

I am originally from New Kent, Virginia and now reside in Prince George! In college, I studied behavioral health services and psychology. I have worked in the medical field for about 6 years and truly enjoy helping others. I love spending my free time with my husband, our two cats and puppy, and hanging with our families.