

Jaclyn Boykin, M.S., QMHP Counselor

Jaclyn Boykin has her MS in Clinical Psychology w/ concentration in Counseling and plans to pursue her LPC. She enjoys working with adults, adolescents, children, and families. Jaclyn has experience utilizing Cognitive Behavioral Techniques as well as utilizing various interventions from other counseling theories that are tailored to meet the needs of the client and the client's desired goals, such as brief solution focused therapy. She has additional experience with substance abuse, marriage and family therapy, trauma, depression, anxiety, life changes, and abuse/neglect. Jaclyn's approach focuses on identify the client's concern and works toward an effective solution, through skill training, cognitive restructuring, and psychoeducation.