

KateRose Thompson, B.A., QMHP-Trainee

KateRose received her Bachelor's Degree in Communication with a Minor in Psychology from a small university in Idaho. She is pursuing her master's degree in Clinical Psychology through Pepperdine University, Graduate School of Education and Psychology to become a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC). She has experience working with children and adults with varying mental health struggles and disabilities at a counseling center, in the community, and at a clinic for children with autism. She uses person-centered, strength-based approaches to empower clients so they can improve their quality of life. When she is not working or in class, she enjoys being in the sunshine, cuddling with her dog, spending time with family and friends, playing board games, and bird watching.
