

Victoria Mangino, M.S., QMHP-C

I graduated with my Bachelors of Arts in Childhood and Family Studies from Keuka College. Following my Bachelor's Degree, I went on to complete my Master's of Science in Marriage and Family Therapy at the University of Rochester. I am now taking steps towards becoming a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. My background is founded in Family System Theory shaping my holistic approach to focus on biological, psychological, social and spiritual elements of each individual and family system. I have experience providing care to children, adolescents, adults, individuals, couples and families in community clinics. My goal is to provide person-centered and strengths based care to help walk beside my clients through their journey towards healing, connection and change. I enjoy spending my spare time with my loved ones, being outdoors, volunteering, and traveling to new places.
